Grevy’s zebra
(Equus grevyi)

• Grevy’s zebra is the largest wild member of the horse family.

• Grevy's zebra foals can stand 6 minutes after being born, and can run after just 45 minutes!

• Grevy’s zebras have big round ears, and have much narrower stripes than plains zebras.

• Every zebra’s stripes are unique, like human fingerprints.